Floor Show

Made from hand-knotted silk and Tibetan wool, Sebastian Herkner's Mainland area rugs for the Rug Company (available in two colourways, $15,232) reference the intersecting grids and connections within cities. avenue-road.com

Field Study

Sized to accommodate dinner for four (and an opportunistic ant or two), this classic picnic basket from Mûr ($155) features woven Appalachian white ash construction and a gingham-checked liner in vinyl fabric for easy care. murlifestyle.com

Good Bunch

Caine Heintzman's Vine light fixtures for Vancouver-based Andlight feature dramatic clusters of opalescent glass and chrome that almost appear to grow down into the room (pendants available in configurations of three, five, seven or nine lights, $1,995 to $5,495). chester-fields.com; vividconcepts.ca

All in One

Wetstyle's highly customizable Déco bathroom vanities, wash-basins and mirrors (pricing on request) make quick work of bathroom renovation decisions. cantubathrooms.com; royalflushbathboutique.com

Second Coming

Cast iron that has been salvaged from industrial engines and other products gives the Mater Imago wall hangers ($75 to $100 each) by Danish design studio Pederjessen a one-off, varied appearance. grshop.com

Drumbeat

Made of textured concrete with a painted finish, the smartly priced Etna side table ($69 to $79) recalls the breeze-block facades of Palm Springs mid-century houses. structube.com
